

A Privilege to go to Camp

Not everyone gets to go to camp

As we know and remember, going to camp was a privilege when we were children. We would do our best to follow directions and behave. Games were not always won by our team, but we had fun playing. Arts and crafts were fun to bring home and show off to our families. It was an environment for finding new friends and learning new games. This still holds true today. If we find campers not being responsible and not following directions, privileges can be revoked.

Camp is a Safe Place to be

We are excited to offer fun, safe, and enriching programs for your children. Parents are encouraged to stop by and visit and/ or volunteer during normal hours of operation. Support for special events is always welcome and appreciated. The Recreation Office number is 324-9130. Campers not adhering to the safety rules will be asked to leave camp – bullying is unacceptable. Field trips are subject to change without notification due to inclement weather –camper’s safety is our number one concern.

Parents can talk to the Staff

Parent concerns, opinions, and suggestions are always welcome. Please feel free to address issues to your camp’s Director. Parents who need assistance with issues or have questions about the program can call the Recreation Office at 324-9130.

Campers/Families/Staff Rights and Responsibilities

Children/Staff will be free from mental, verbal, physical/sexual abuse, neglect and exploitation from staff and/or campers. Each person has a right to a safe and healthy environment. Each person has a right to consideration and respect. Each person has a right and responsibility to participate in activities. No hitting, kicking, pushing, pinching, and or shoving will be tolerated. Treat others as you wish to be treated. We believe that rules, expectations, and limits should be applied consistently and explained in a clear and age appropriate manner. Parents have the responsibility to avoid early drop-off, and to be on time for pick-up at the end of each camp day or pay the late fee if not adhered to. Parents have the responsibility to pick up their children without being under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Appropriate camp clothing for the day is a must, warm/cold, rain/shine. Sick children need to be at home. Medications for your child’s special needs need to be discussed with the director. P & R not responsible for lost, stolen or broken property (cell phones can stay at home).

Summer Program Policies and Procedures

All participants must have a “Privilege to go to Camp” on file at camp locations. Those wishing for a refund must inquire to the Main Office within the first 2 weeks of the programs start date. Payment is expected in full at the time of registration. Refunds will be mailed out within 3 weeks minus a $10 administration fee. Safety Policies for all programs available for viewing. If class limits are not reached refunds will be given.

Late for camp pick-up

If a child is not picked up by camp close, a late fee will be assessed at $1 for every minute you are late. (5 minutes late - $5, 12 minutes late - $12. This will be billed to the family household account through the office.

Snacks and Drinks for campers to keep the energy level up

We insist that you send two snacks and a water bottle with your camper every day. There are designated snack times each day at camp. Providing this for the children allows them to re-energize for the next activities.
